

COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

Governing fairly, responsibly, and successfully should be the guiding principles for community association boards. How? Embrace the following guidelines. They'll help your association board increase harmony, reduce conflict, and build a stronger, more prosperous community.

In accordance with community governing documents and applicable laws and regulations, boards should:

CONDUCT REGULAR MEETINGS. Hold at least one membership meeting annually and regular board meetings as needed. Provide homeowners with appropriate notice and encourage involvement.

CONDUCT ELECTIONS. Hold fair and open elections that provide all candidates an equal opportunity to express their views. Associations should allow a representative from each candidate to observe the vote-counting process.

SET AN OPERATING BUDGET. Determine expenses for maintaining community common areas, facilities, equipment, and amenities, hiring professional partners, insuring the community's assets, and more.

PLAN FOR AND FUND RESERVES. Commission a reserve study when professional expertise is warranted and plan for anticipated long-term expenditures as part of the annual budget-development process.

COLLECT ASSESSMENTS. Levy and collect assessments and other fees from homeowners in a timely and equitable manner.

FULLFILL FIDUCIARY DUTY. Act within the board's authority, exercise due care, act in good faith, and act with ordinary care in the best interests of the association.

GOVERN WITH TRANSPARENCY. Share critical information and rationale with residents about budgets, reserve funding, special assessments, and other issues that impact their financial obligations to the association. Give residents an opportunity to ask questions and engage in dialogue on these matters.

PROVIDE ACCESS TO RECORDS. Allow homeowners reasonable access to appropriate community records, including annual budgets and board meeting minutes.

DISCLOSE CONFLICTS OF INTEREST. Reveal all personal and financial conflicts before assuming a board position and, once on the board, before participating in any board decisions.
